NATURAL SOY CANDLES SET THE ROMANTIC MOOD FOR

Valentines Day

Your loved ones will enjoy tantalizing fragrances and calming aromatherapy, sans toxins.

This Valentine's Day, light up the darkness -- and your sweetie's heart -- with the gift of gorgeous green candles. Take in the relaxing, romantic mood set up by flickering flames, and enjoy scents of soothing plant oils. Enjoy the sensual warmth of a Spa-Valous™ body massage candle and take in the benefits of the natural ingredients and the fragrance of Chocolate and Vanilla.

Conventional candles are made of petroleum-based paraffin wax, synthetic dyes and artificial fragrances, which are toxic to man and animals alike and result in indoor air pollutants. Cheaper wicks may contain traces of heavy metals, which can get released into the air during combustion. The toxins in conventional candles lead to black soot on walls, ceilings and household fabrics.

Instead, give your loved ones something more natural, such as these charming candles from Spa-Valous™ Cosmetic Body Massage Candles. Available from beauty salons countrywide, the handmade, 100% soy candles come in reusable glass, and are scented with pure essential oils and body safe fragrances, with no artificial ingredients.

The heart card attached enables you to write that special message to your loved one.
